NEW PLAN FOR MIDDLE EAST PEACE MISSION IS MAPPED DURING WEEKEND

BULLETIN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly emergency meeting today received a Western-backed plan calling on Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld to work out arrangements to ease tension in the Middle East.

The plan, embodying several parts of President Eisenhower's peace program, failed to win the backing of key Asian and Arab countries but its sponsors predicted it would win the necessary two-thirds majority.

Initial sponsors were Norway, Canada, Colombia and Denmark. Others were expected to join later. The United States and Britain, although not formal sponsors, had a leading part in drafting the proposal and were prepared to give it full support.

Secretary of State Dulles and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd submitted letters to the Assembly president, Sir Leslie Munro of New Zealand, giving formal assurances U. S. and British forces would be withdrawn from Lebanon and Jordan when stable conditions are restored.

By MAX HARRISON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A Western-supported resolution was laid before the U. N. General Assembly emergency meeting today proposing that Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld be given a new Middle East peace mission.

The new plan was whipped into final form in a busy weekend of conferences between the chief sponsor, Dept. Foreign Minister Hans Engen of Norway, and other key delegates.

The United States was not a sponsor, but informed quarters said the United States would give the proposal full support.

The text was understood to give Hammarskjöld the job of working out security arrangements in Lebanon and Jordan to make possible withdrawal of U. S. and British forces.

It also was reported to call on the secretary general to make studies on two of President Eisenhower's Middle East peace proposals—creation of a stand-by peace force and establishment of a regional economic foundation.

The resolution reportedly failed Sunday night to win Arab-Asian support.

A diplomat said some Arab and Asian countries had objected that it did not say specifically that the United States and Britain should withdraw their troops.

Engen has said, however, that he would have a "nice group" of co-sponsors in the 81-nation Assembly.

The Soviet Union already has introduced a resolution which would have the Assembly recommend that the United States and Britain withdraw their troops without delay. The resolution also calls for strengthening the U. N. observer corps in Lebanon and sending another to Jordan to supervise the troop withdrawal and the situation on Jordan's frontiers.

Decision on Security Bill Faces House

By JOHN KOENIG, JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House faces a decision on what to do about a bill that would boost payments to some 12 million persons now drawing Social Security benefits.

The question before the House is whether to accept amendments adopted by the Senate in a move to avert a possible veto by President Eisenhower.

If acceptance is voted without sending the bill to a Senate-House conference, the measure (Turn to Page Three)

AFL-CIO Leaders Gird for Battle With Teamsters

By NORMAN WALKER

UNITED HOUSE, Pa. (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders meet today to spread tighter organized labor's quarantine against the Teamsters Union.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president said in advance that all AFL-CIO unions must end their mutual aid pacts with the giant truckers union, ousted from the federation eight months ago on corruption charges.

Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers, told newsmen he was confident the AFL-CIO Executive Council would vote to require member unions to sever all ties with the Teamsters.

This is a crucial decision with most AFL-CIO unions whose bargaining power depends on Teamsters' help in respecting their picket lines to cut off deliveries and make their strikes effective.

Revenue Dep't Stepping Up Drive on Sales Tax Evaders

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Revenue Dept. disclosed Monday a stepped-up drive against sales tax evaders netted 540 firms that had never paid any sales tax.

Deputy Secretary Charles S. Seligman said the most flagrant case involved a Pittsburgh furniture firm that collected $5,600 in sales taxes from its customers but never remitted the money to the state.

"This was an outrageous instance of evading the law," he told the Associated Press. "We have collected interest and the 25 percent penalty against the firm and criminal prosecution is pending."

He said the sales tax law specifically prohibits identifying the firm until the case reaches the courts.

Seligman said the eight-month drive to bring in new sales tax accounts unearthed thousands of dollars in additional sales tax revenues but he was unable to estimate a specific amount.

Principal offenders, he said, were auto part stores and mechanics, barbers, beauty shops, vending machine operators, restaurants and taverns, sellers of barrels and cartons and service stations.

"We were able to track down these people on the basis of a variety of reasons," he said. "Lists from trade associations of their members, scanning the classified sections of telephone directories and simple digging are doing the job."

The department caught up with a Pittsburgh furniture firm by a telephone tip from an outsider, he said.

Seligman said the bureau has collected $4,200,000 in sales tax in the first six months of this year by intensive audits. This compared with nearly 5% millions yielded by the same system last year and a million dollars in 1956.

Jam of Bills Delaying End Of Congress

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A stack of bills, some of which could provoke floor battles, today confronted a Congress anxious to go home and campaign for the fall elections.

Leaders were shooting for adjournment by the end of this week, but there were several issues that could prevent them from hitting that target.

The House undertook a mammoth job by listing 35 bills for possible consideration today under procedure requiring two-thirds votes for passage.

In this group was a controversial labor control bill which has passed the Senate. This measure was given slight chance.

Another bill up for action on a take-it-or-leave-it basis was a watered-down housing bill which has passed the Senate in a different form. It's fate was uncertain.

The Senate, meanwhile, was due to tackle legislation aimed at overcoming the effects of certain Supreme Court decisions in the civil liberties and antisubversive fields.

This potentially explosive debate could tie up the Senate for some time and possibly delay adjournment.

Another issue likely to strike sparks in the Senate is the nomination of W. Wilson White to be an assistant attorney general in charge of the Justice Department's new Civil Rights Division.

White's nomination is opposed by Southern senators who recall the legal spade-work he did in connection with President Eisenhower's use of federal troops to enforce court-ordered school integration in Little Rock last fall.

The Senate Democratic Policy Committee has cleared 106 bills for Senate action. However, many of these are minor and some may not be called up.

One major bill awaiting Senate action is a $3,518,000,000 foreign aid money bill. The House has passed an aid bill totaling $3,078,000,000.

During the weekend, a high administration official said Eisenhower will make a determined bid to get a final bill as close as possible to the bigger Senate total.

Eisenhower's six-point program for Middle East stability, presented last week to the United Nations General Assembly, got a warm reception in Congress. The administration official said the President plans to tell congressional leaders they can show their support for it by voting maximum aid funds.

One Killed in Crash In Montgomery County

SOMERSET, Pa. (AP)—Attendees at Somerset Hospital today listed in satisfactory condition a man and his wife who were injured in an auto crash that proved fatal to a Montgomery County woman.

Joseph Richter, Jr., 28, of Conshohocken, Montgomery County, and his wife, Barbara, were injured Saturday when the auto Richter was driving rammed the rear of a tractor-trailer on the Pennsylvania Turnpike near Somerset.

Killed in the crash was Mrs. Jean Bochnowicz, 33, also of Conshohocken. She and Mrs. Richter were sisters.

Torch Death Mystery Man Gives Self Up

By PHIL THOMAS

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—Herman Kierdorf, former Teamster official sought for two weeks after the mystery torch death of his nephew, gave himself up Sunday night.

The 68-year-old ex-convict, one-time business agent for a Teamsters local, surrendered to authorities at a drive-in restaurant by pre-arrangement.

"I'm happy to have it over with," he sighed.

Herman vanished Aug. 4, the day his nephew Frank Kierdorf, 34, staggered into a Pontiac hospital with horrible burns. Police believe he was burned while setting fire to a dry cleaning shop in Flint.

Before he died three days later, he said he was burned deliberately by two men. But police said their investigation disproved the story.

Denying emphatically any connection with the reputed arson, Herman said he surrendered because he really had no reason to hide. He also insisted that his ex-convict nephew had not burned himself.

"Why should Frank set that place on fire as an arson job?" he asked. "I just don't believe Frank would do a thing like that."

Clutching a big cigar and wearing an Ivy League cap, Herman gave himself up promptly at the agreed time of 10 p.m. His son Richard had acted as intermediary with police.

"I am a sick man," he told reporters, referring to a heart condition. He added that another reason he turned himself in was that he felt sorry that Chief Assistant Prosecutor George Taylor of Oakland County was "taking a rap."

It was Taylor, a chief investigating officer in the Frank Kierdorf fire death mystery, who let Herman have his freedom Aug. 4 after he had been questioned. "I'm sorry I caused so much trouble," Herman said apologetically.

Herman surrendered to Taylor and Chief Prosecutor Frederick C. Zieman at the drive-in. The two officers were accompanied to the meeting place by Herman's son.

Before being booked at the Oakland County Jail, Herman took a nitroglycerine pill for his heart.

He was booked on a formal charge of possession of a pistol without license. This was the charge on which he had been declared a fugitive.

He said he never left Michigan while the search was on. He refused to say where he had been.

His statements in an interview with newsmen sometimes were in conflict.

At one time he said he vanished because he was "shaken up by the death of my nephew." He did not explain why he was missing three days before Frank died.

Later, Michigan Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams issued a statement in which he said he still believed Herman was the key to the fire mystery.

In Washington, spokesmen for the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee said today a decision is expected soon on whether to recall Herman Kierdorf for questioning about racketeering in Michigan.

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy has indicated previously he saw little hope of getting any answers from Kierdorf, who invoked the Fifth (Turn to Page Three)

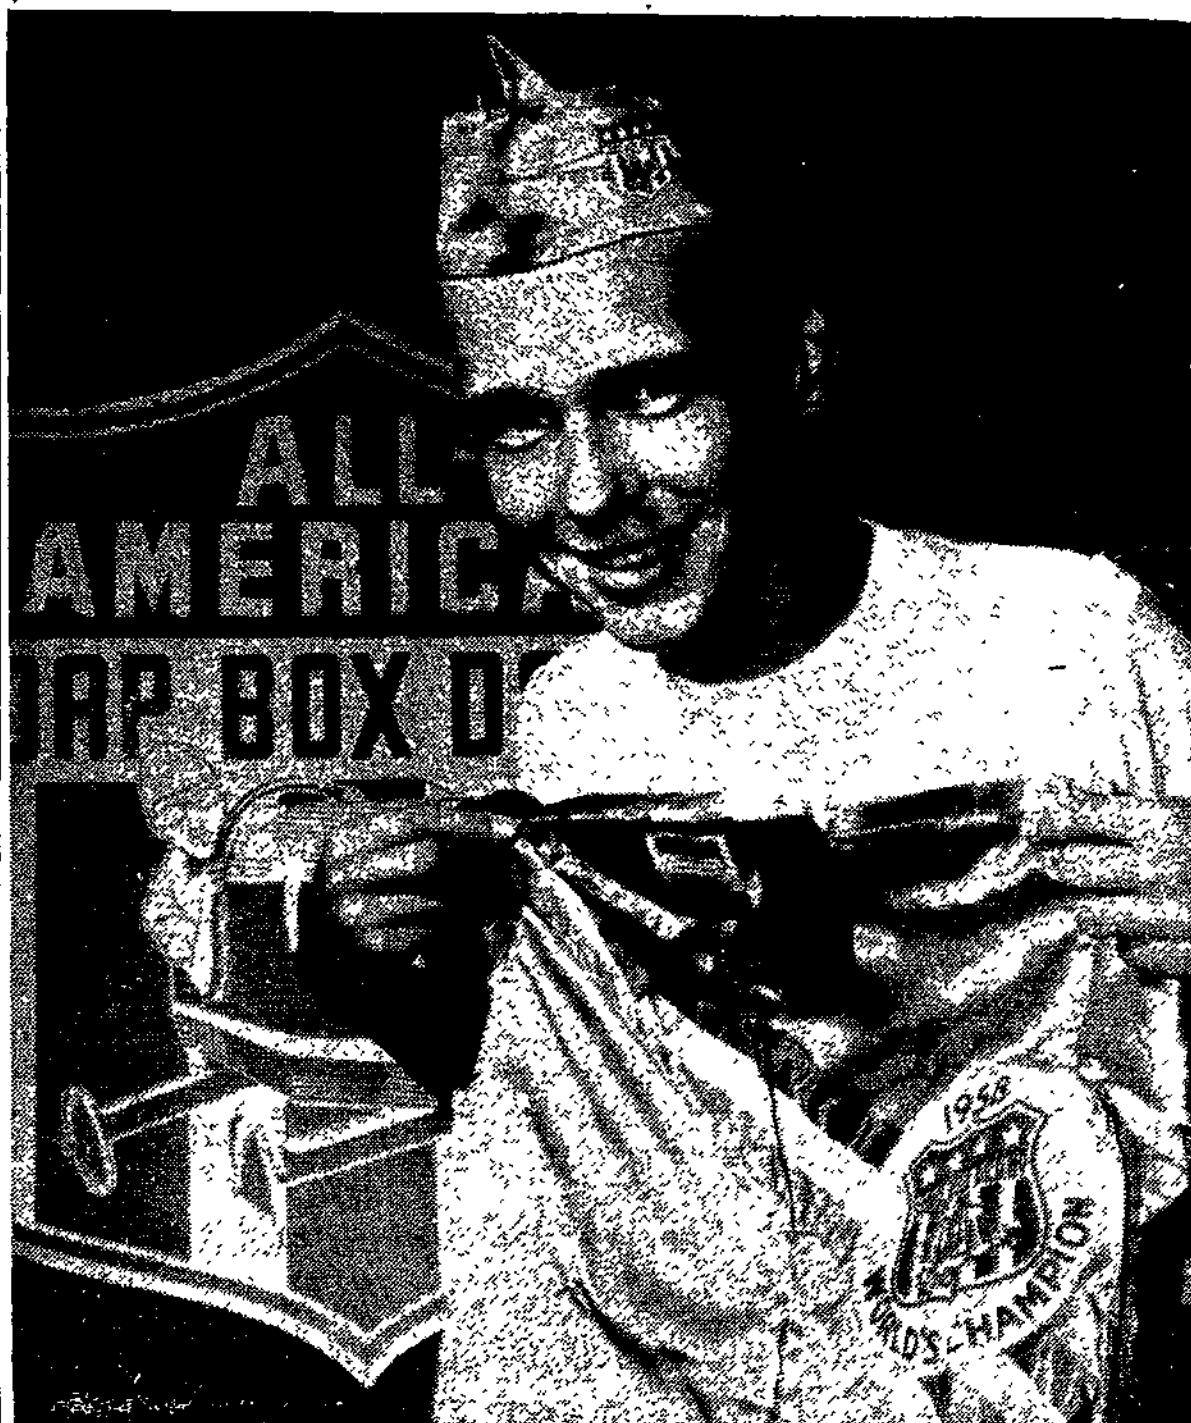

Five Lose Lives In Collision In Armstrong County

BREEZEWOOD, Pa. (AP)—Airmen Philip Marquardt, 19, of Baltimore, died Saturday in a hospital, the fifth victim of a tragic auto-truck collision on Route 126 five miles north of Breezewood.

Killed instantly in the Friday night crash were Marquardt's wife, Susanna, 20, formerly of North Apollo, Armstrong County; Miss Shirley Ann Swenson, 19, of Apollo; Miss Joyce Elaine McCausland, 18, of Apollo; and Miss Nancy Jane Henry, 18, of North Apollo.

Marquardt, stationed at Andrews Air Force Base near Washington, was driving his wife and the others, all secretarial employees of the government, to the area.

Total of 29 Die On State Highway During Weekend

A total of 39 Pennsylvanians died accidentally over the weekend, 29 of them in highway mishaps.

Five victims drowned. It was the worst death toll for a 1958 weekend—the highest in many a summer.

Not even on a holiday weekend was the toll so great. The highest previous this year were 19 traffic deaths Memorial Day weekend.

Highway accidents in western Pennsylvania accounted for the bulk of the highway deaths—26. In three separate accidents a total of 15 died—five in each mishap.

Eighteen persons were killed on state highways last weekend.

Besides the shocking traffic toll 10 other Pennsylvanians died. Five drowned in swimming or boating accidents. One man fell to his death, another was killed by a train. A plane crash killed the lone occupant. A boy punctured a throat artery and bled to death and another was killed accidentally by a shotgun held by his brother.

MASONTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Five Masontown persons—including three young girls—were killed Sunday in a head-on auto collision on Route 21 a mile east of this southwestern Pennsylvania community.

It brought the total to 26 persons killed since Friday afternoon in a rash of traffic accidents on western Pennsylvania highways unsurpassed in recent years. It was the third weekend traffic crash to claim five lives in western Pennsylvania.

Killed in Sunday's crash were Dennis Vagnoli, 17, and Michael Zapotosky, 51, the drivers of the two cars; Toni Marguerite, 14, and her sister, Marilyn, 15; and Darlene LeDonne, 13. Police said the three girls were riding in Vagnoli's auto.

Officers said both cars were demolished. The wreckage blocked traffic on the busy highway for nearly an hour. A crowd of some 500 persons gathered quickly in the area.

Today all Warren county cheers home its champion, Manfred Rydholm, '58 winner of the third annual Soap Box Derby classic held in Warren, who valiantly represented the Warren Jaycees and the Times-Mirror in the 21st running of the All-American Soap Box Derby in Akron, Ohio, Sunday. Husky 15-year-old Manfred, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rydholm of 17 Sixth street, Youngsville, was eliminated in the first round of heats, being beaten out by Gary Anderson of San Diego, California in 28.15 seconds. Despite Manfred's elimination from the first round those of us back home had no doubt that young Manfred would prove himself a worthy ambassador.

And the glow of excitement of his four grand days at Derbytown had our champ all aglow, as he stated this was about the most thrilling thing that ever happened to him. Section Q of the grandstand at Derby Downs was bursting with happy Warren faces, as members of the Jaycees arrived with their joyous cargoes of the 1958 Warren contestants, headed by Derby Director Harry Spackman for whom "Mighty Manfred" was a sight for sore eyes. A cheer went up from the bleachers as Heat Number 14 was announced, and in Lane 3, was that familiar sleek red racer, Car No. 149, bearing its sterling banner, while crouched behind its wheel, sat Manfred, in the official gold champion's shirt, and glistening white helmet.

From a field of 160 boys, a record number of champions this year, young Jim Miley, of Muncie, Indiana, sponsored by the Star, emerged the victor with the fastest heat timing of the day, 27.86 seconds, to become the 1958 All-American champion. The lean six-footer, 15, took daily bending exercises since last August so his long frame would fit into his low-slung black fiberglass racer and cut down wind resistance. The high school sophomore is on his school's swimming team, plays in the band, and is a Scout and newspaper carrier.

For Jim, the happy-faced proud champ, came a storehouse of prizes and awards. Among them a $5,000 scholarship and the championship trophy presented to him at the Banquet of Champions held annually at Goodyear Hall in downtown Akron. An extra reason for striving to be the champion this year, is the all-expense paid trip to Pasadena, Calif., for the Rose Bowl game on January 1st, when he will ride along side Roy Rogers in the gala Rose Festival Parade, in a specially designed Soap Box Derby float, and will also appear on several TV programs this week. Following the banquet, Champion Jim boarded a plane, leaving for New York, and another glorious four-day holiday with expenses paid.

In second place was David Hilligoss of Anderson, Indiana; Third place, Ronnie Ashley of Los Angeles; Fourth place, Brent Brown of Elkhart, Indiana.

PLANS BEING RUSHED FOR ANOTHER TRY

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Air Force scientists and brass pressed an intensive investigation today to learn what caused the nation's first lunar rocket to explode.

The huge satellite bearing missile shattered to bits in a puff of white smoke Sunday 77 seconds after a fiery blastoff.

Even before this initial strike at the moon a second attempt had been ordered. The follow-up Air Force lunar probe attempt is expected during a three-day period starting Sept. 14. There was a distinct possibility that the Soviets might attempt to beat the new U. S. deadline by one day.

Plans for another moon rocket try were disclosed as the Air Force began fishing the explosion-torn debris of its first lunar vehicle out of the Atlantic.

Divers descended into 60 feet of water some 10 miles northeast of the cape and came up with sections of the metal skin of the Thor 1,500-mile-range missile that was the first stage of the moon rocket.

The two upper stages—both borrowed from the Navy Vanguard program—continued onward an undetermined distance after the explosion. It was not expected that that part of the wreckage would be recovered.

Preliminary analysis indicated that the explosion occurred in the engine compartment of the first of the three rocket stages.

Maj. Gen. Bernard Schriever, chief of the Air Force Ballistic Missile Division, told a news conference that while it might take a week to pinpoint the trouble definitely, a quick look at the data indicated a random failure.

A leak in or rupture of one of the liquid oxygen or fuel lines might have touched off the explosion, he said.

Schriever and Roy W. Johnson, head of the Defense Department's space program, told newsmen two hours after the blowup that they were disappointed but not discouraged by the failure.

Johnson, director of the Advanced Research Projects Agency, said the malfunctioning of any of 300,000 parts could make the missile do what this one did.

Asked if the failure would harm U. S. prestige as did the Dec. 6 launch-pad explosion of the Vanguard (Turn to Page Three)

Hurricane Cleo Sweeps North To Open Atlantic

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Cleo swept northward in the open Atlantic today with slowly decreasing winds near the center but an increase in size.

The storm posed no threat to the U. S. mainland, the U. S. Weather Bureau said.

The season's first hurricane had winds up to 105 miles an hour near the center today as it howled along 500 miles east northeast of Bermuda. It was moving at 20 miles an hour.

A turn toward the north-northeast is indicated, the Weather Bureau said.

Some increase in size is expected as the hurricane loses its force. Hurricane force winds extend out 75 miles around the center, with gale force winds reaching 225 miles to the north and east and 150 miles to the southwest.

Beauty Who Captured Heart Of Marquess Dies in London

LONDON (AP)—The 80-year-old dowager marchioness of Headfort, stage star of the Naughty 90s, died at her London home Sunday night.

Once all theaterland knew her as Rosie Boote, a beauty from Tipperary who captured the heart of a handsome marquess.

Her voice and her figure won her fame overnight in the storied world of hansom cabs and stage door Johnnies who drank champagne from her silken slipper.

Rosie's big success came with a hit song, "Maisie Was a Little Girl." (Turn to Page Three)

Darling, Maisie Was a Dear," in a show called "The Messenger Boy" at London's famed old Gaiety Theatre.

A year later, at the height of her fame in 1901, she retired from the stage to marry a young Lord Guards officer, the fourth marquess of Headfort. His family was shocked, but Rosie's charm finally won them over.

After their marriage, the couple settled on his family estate in County Cavan and County Meath.

They had two sons and a daughter. Lord Headfort died in 1941.

BAKERY CLOSES DOWN

After more than fifty years of business the Meadville Bread Co. ceased operations at midnight Saturday, bringing the immediate layoff of 63 employees with a few more to go in another week. Roger Lane, company president, said that baking operations ceased at the close of the Saturday bake order for Loblau, Inc. Beginning Monday the Loblau baking will be handled at the Youngstown, Ohio, plant of the Hathaway Baking Co., Lane said. Meadville Bread Co. held a one-year contract to furnish bakery goods to Loblau company stores in 39 communities in Northwestern Pennsylvania and in Ohio as far west as the Canton-Akron area. The contract expired July 22 but was extended to Saturday. Mr. Lane stated. More economical operations in distribution throughout the territory was given as the reason for transferring operations to Youngstown. Mr. Lane said. Loblau previously produced its baked products in Buffalo until a decentralization program last year became partially effective. The Buffalo bakery was involved in a strike at about the same time. The strike was settled soon after the local bakery began its operations. Meadville Bread Co. products were discontinued at the local plant but the Fitch Baking Co., Erie, purchased the Meadville company's wholesale distribution and brand names of Flavorite and Sweetheart breads. At one time during the past year, the bakery employed approximately 100 persons, some of whom left when the Loblau change was learned.

V. A. Hospital in Erie Will Not be Closed Gavin Says

In information contained in a telegram received at Times-Mirror today from Representative L. H. Gavin, the 23rd District representative stated that in view of recent newspaper stories concerning meetings of representatives of Veterans organizations to protest the alleged closing of Erie Veterans Administration Hospital, he thought all concerned should know that the veterans administration does not plan on closing this facility.

Immediately upon hearing these rumors, Congressman Gavin contacted Veterans Administration, and in a letter to the Congressman, Deputy Chief Medical Director of Veterans Administration stated, "We have no plans to close the hospital at Erie but expect to utilize it within its full mission of 160 average daily patient load for the current fiscal year. Thank you for giving us the opportunity to dispel this unfounded rumor."

Mr. Gavin said the House Committee on Veterans Affairs also informed him that closing of the Erie VA Hospital has never been considered.

"Stories on the closing of the hospital," the Congressman stated, "arose from the fact that individuals have expressed their personal opinions at recent hearings held by Veterans Affairs Committee but at no time has an official of the Veterans Administration or a member of Veterans Affairs committee recommended that this facility be closed, and it is expected that it will be utilized to its full capacity."

Mr. Gavin further stated that such rumors gave him great concern as they cause needless anxiety and hoped that in the future it wouldn't be necessary to again dispel unfounded rumors.

FUNERAL INFORMATION WILL BE FOUND UNDER ANOTHER HEADING

ELIZABETH B. SCHOEY

Final rites for Mrs. Elizabeth B. Schoey, well known Kinzua resident, were held at 2:00 p. m. Sunday at Kinzua Methodist church. The church was filled nearly to capacity for the services conducted by the Rev. Viola Burch, of Corydon, and the following served as bearers for interment in Kinzua cemetery: Russell, Bray, George Schoey, Earl Gray, Earl Gray, Richard Gray and Gene Gray. Prior to the service, Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson played a group of hymn selections at the piano.

MRS. RICHARD GORDON

Dr. H. H. Barr, retired Methodist minister, officiated at 1:30 p. m. Friday for the funeral of Eleonora Elizabeth Gordon, wife of Richard Gordon, of 413 Hazel street. Serving as bearers for interment in Warren County Memorial Park at Starbuck were Donald and Gerald Wolfe, Norman Irish, Lloyd and Everett Carlson and Jack Kahler.

The services were very largely attended, including the following from away: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wolfe, Mrs. Gladys Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carlson, Dunkirk, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Swank, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wolfe, Fredonia, N. Y.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wolfe, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. Edith Ward and Miss Margaret Ward, Pittsfield, Mass.; Everett Carlson, Phillipsburg, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Irish, Bayside, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wolfe, Titusville.

BLANCHE E. KIRKHAM

Mrs. Blanche E. Kirkham, 39 Ford street, Youngsville, died at Warren General Hospital about 5:00 a. m. Saturday after having been in poor health for some time.

Born in Tonawanda, N. Y., on January 30, 1881, Mrs. Kirkham had been a resident of Youngsville for many years and, with Ora Schnell, operated the Woodnell Shop there over a long period of years.

Widow of Emmett Kirkham, she is survived by two great-nieces, Mrs. Martha Cole, Dunkirk, N. Y., and Mrs. Virginia Smith, Brocton, N. Y.

She was a member of Youngsville Methodist church and her pastor, the Rev. J. Norman Holder, conducted services in her memory at 2:00 p. m. today. Interment followed in Youngsville cemetery.

TONY MAZUR

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Headlund, 504 Pennsylvania avenue, east, were called to Spangler, Pa., over the weekend by the death of Mrs. Headlund's father, Tony Mazur, aged 67, Saturday evening. Besides Mrs. Headlund, Mr. Mazur is survived by his wife, Pauline; ten other children and a number of grandchildren, including Christa and Larry Headlund, of Warren. Plans for the services have not been learned.

MARGARET M. GAUGHAN

Mrs. Margaret Masterson Gaughan, 906 Fourth avenue, died at Warren General Hospital at 9:55 p. m. Friday at the age of 78 years.

Mrs. Gaughan was born in Irvine August 29, 1879 and had been a resident of this area all her life. She was a member of St. Joseph's church and its Altar Society; also of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Eagles' Lodge 313.

Surviving as one brother and two sisters, Frank and Ann Masterson and Frances Masterson Kelley, all of Warren; also several nieces and nephews. Her husband, William B. Gaughan, preceded her in death in 1944; a sister Winifred Peterson, died in 1957.

MRS. JOSEPH DUFFIELD

Mrs. Norma Roche Duffield, 43 year old resident of 105 Alexander street, and wife of Joseph Duffield, died in Warren General Hospital at 1:05 p. m. Saturday following a year's illness.

Mrs. Duffield was born in Bradford September 2, 1914, and had been a resident of Warren for the past 13 years. A registered nurse, she received her training at St. Vincent's Hospital in Erie, graduating with the Class of 1935. During her residence in Warren, she had been employed at Warren General Hospital, but ceased her nursing duties when she became ill a year ago. She was a member of Holy Redeemer church; also of the American Nurses' Association.

nigan, New York City; Dr. James N. Roche, Pittsburgh; also several nieces and nephews.

Services in her memory will be held at Holy Redeemer church at 9:00 a. m. Tuesday, with interment following in St. Bernard's cemetery at Bradford. Contributions may be made to the Heart Fund.

VALLIE C. PRATT

SHEFFIELD—Mrs. Vallie C. Pratt, 101 Miller street, died in Warren General Hospital at 1:40 p. m. Friday. In ill health for nearly three years, her condition had become serious in the past three weeks.

Born in Goldsboro, Pa., June 27, 1878, she resided in Latonia, Pa., before coming to Sheffield in 1921. She was a member of First Methodist church and its Harriet McCamey Class; also of the Women's Benefit Association.

Surviving are four children, Emmett, of Sheffield; Mrs. Elda Johnson, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. Myra Steinkamp, New Rochelle, N. Y.; and John D. Pratt, Jr., of West Chester, Pa.; also nine grandchildren; one brother, Edwin Muehler, of Williamsport. Her husband, J. D. Pratt, preceded her in death April 25, 1955.

The Rev. Jack Parson conducted services in her memory at 1:30 p. m. today, with interment following in Fairview cemetery at Port Allegany.

JAMES R. HUBER

Largely attended funeral services were held in Titusville Friday for James Richard Huber, who died in Indianapolis, Ind., Tuesday and was a brother of Gerald Huber of Warren. The rites were held in Emanuel Lutheran church, the Rev. C. Russell Lundgren officiating, and interment following in Sunset Memorial Park in Cranberry township, near Oil City.

Full military honors were accorded by Cleo J. Ross Post, American Legion.

Among those attending from away were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Huber, Mr. and Mrs. J. Billstone, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Billstone, Miss Kathy Huber, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Christensen, Mrs. Diane Schweitzer, Warren.

MRS. EVA C. BRADY

Mrs. Eva C. Brady, resident of Youngsville all her life, died suddenly about 8:00 p. m. Saturday while preparing for bed at the Barley Nursing Home. Born May 24, 1867, she had been in failing health for some time.

She and her husband, Mike Brady, who died about 15 years ago, were both employed at Rouse Home, as mailman and superintendent, prior to his election as Warren county commissioner. She was a member of Youngsville Methodist church. Only near survivors are several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services in Youngsville at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday will be conducted by the Rev. J. Norman Holder, pastor of the Methodist church, and will be followed by interment in Youngsville cemetery.

Jap Workmen Refuse To Handle Missile Cargo

YOKOHAMA, Japan (AP)—Japanese opposition to nuclear weapons again today blocked the unloading of Swiss guided-missile equipment which defense officials say cannot take atomic warheads. The Japan Longshoremen's Union, backed by the opposition Socialist party and a host of leftist groups, refused to touch the missile cargo that arrived Sunday. It called the shipment a step toward arming Japan with atomic weapons.

Japan's defense agency started negotiations four years ago with the Contraves-Oerlikon Co. of Zurich to import the missiles and get them into local production for Japanese defense.

important resolution needs a two-thirds vote. The 28-nation Asian-African group thus holds the balance of power.

Engen began working on his proposal Thursday, taking over some U.S. and British ideas. He spent all day Sunday in conference with delegates from all regions, seeking votes or co-sponsors.

He talked for 2½ hours Sunday night with U.A.R. Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi, who afterwards met with Indian Delegate Arthur Lal.

Lal later said the Norwegian resolution "does not seem to be generally acceptable in its present form." But he added he could not say how India would stand on it until it was in final shape.

Soap Box Derby Champ

ana; Fifth place, Peter Christlieb, of Los Angeles; Sixth place, G. Robert Heppburn of Johnstown, Pa.; Seventh place, Gary Anderson, of Los Angeles, Calif.; Eighth place, by Allen Roth of Seattle, Wash.; and ninth place winner was Otis Aihart of Birmingham, Ala. In the special United States guest race, first place was copied by Ernesto Carvajal of the Philippines; Second place, Richard Gilling of Anchorage, Alaska; Third place, Lutz Springer of Germany; Fourth place to Donald Ward of St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada; and Fifth place to Robert Dickerson, of Venezuela. Carvajal's official time was 28.50 seconds.

It is interesting to note that 28 American cities and the Republic of Venezuela, South America, were new entries in the record breaking list of 160 sponsoring points sending champions to the 21st All-American. Among the new American cities in this year's event were Charleston, W. Va., Cheyenne, Minneapolis, Savannah, and Tampa. Of course Charleston is no stranger to Derby competition, having produced two former world champions in previous All-Americans—Kenneth Holmboe, in 1947, and Harold Williamson in 1950. Others added to the lineup this year were: Abbeesee and Ephrata (Grand County), Washington; Amsterdam and Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Anniston, Ala.; Bowling Green, Kentucky; Cicero and Elgin, Ill.; Coshocton, Mansfield, Middletown, and Warren, Ohio; Covington, Georgia; Crawfordville and Marion, Indiana; Dover, N. H.; Fayetteville, N. C.; Huntington, W. Va.; Las Vegas, Nevada; Natheez, Mass.; Oelwein, La.; Tidewater, Va.; and Torrington, Conn.

Among the celebrities visiting Derby Downs for the race, were Guy Madison, the one-time ordinary seaman who was discovered by a talent scout during World War II and eventually became a national figure in his TV role as "Wild Bill" Hickok, Eddie Bracken, familiar to all for his outstanding movie and TV roles; and the teen-age idol Pat Boone with his lovely wife, Shirley. In the Oil-Can Derby, Pat Boone in lane three, nosed out his opponents to top the victory, while Eddie Bracken openly wept bitter tears. However, he later stated that he was glad to be a loser, because there were so many of them.

The 21st All-American Pre-Race parade was a spectacle to see, with 45 marching units, led by General Curtis LeMay, Honorary Parade Marshal. Also in the line-up, was Governor C. William O'Neill, of Ohio and his family. Climaxing the wonderful four-day stay at Derbytown, and the race itself, was the Banquet of Champions, honoring every champ. The theme—Faith in Millions of Boys—was dramatically demonstrated as it has been over the years.

By emphasizing craftsmanship and sportsmanship, the Soap Box Derby has become a character-building institution of international significance... dedicated to youth, and is the greatest amateur racing event in the world.

Goodyear Hall was a burst of color with beautiful gladiolas, and mums—second only to the splurge of brilliant color from the President, canna's flanking Derby Downs, itself; and the American flags, with the insignia and emblem of the Derby floated high above the heads of the guests at the Banquet. Each champ, was introduced to the guests, and following the dinner, awards were presented.

The Akron Boy Chorus entertained with appropriate selections, and sang their special rendition of "Marching Along Together" as a Grand Finale, before the Champ Jim Miley appeared on stage to receive his array of prizes.

It is obvious that 160 boys representing the youth of America went home with happy memories of this thrilling 21st All-American Soap Box Derby, and to Manfred Rydholm, Warren County's champ, a big pat on the back for a job well done, and for representing all of us in the greatest amateur racing event in the world. The co-sponsors of the Derby, Times-Mirror, Dan's Chevrolet, and the Jaycees are proud to have delegated such an outstanding young boy to the thrills, chills, spills... oops. NO SPILLS, this time—of the All-American classic in Akron, Ohio. Welcome home, Manfred!

Decision on Security Bill

will go to the White House. The House on July 31 passed a bill to grant a 7 per cent increase in benefits. The vote was 375-2.

The Senate last Saturday approved a similar 7 per cent benefit boost in passing a Social Security bill by a 79-0 vote. However, the Senate pared increased federal grants to the states for four public assistance programs to 197 million dollars.

As approved by the House, these grants would total 288 millions. The programs are for the needy, the aged, blind, and disabled and dependent children.

Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.), sponsor of amendments cutting the public assistance grants, said he was certain their adoption would prevent a veto.

The Eisenhower administration had been urging that the federal government reduce, not increase, its share of the assistance programs.

Benefit increases for retired persons and recipients of survivor and disability benefits would start in checks received next February.

However, the 75 million persons now contributing in payroll taxes to the Social Security system would have their rates increased next Jan. 1. The maximum boost would be $25.50 a year each for employee and employer.

Social Security insurance beneficiaries now on the rolls would have their checks increased by an average of about $4.75 a month.

The monthly range of benefits, now $30-$108.50 for an individual, would go up to $33-$116. After several years the maximum individual benefit would rise to $127.

It is obvious that 160 boys representing the youth of America went home with happy memories of this thrilling 21st All-American Soap Box Derby, and to Manfred Rydholm, Warren County's champ, a big pat on the back for a job well done, and for representing all of us in the greatest amateur racing event in the world. The co-sponsors of the Derby, Times-Mirror, Dan's Chevrolet, and the Jaycees are proud to have delegated such an outstanding young boy to the thrills, chills, spills... oops. Harris Has Almost Ten Pound Advantage

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson today weighed in at 184½, and challenger Roy Harris scaled 194 for their 15-round title fight at Wrigley Field tonight.

Harris entered the ring first at Hollywood Legion Stadium for the weigh-in. The resident of Cut and Shoot, Tex., came in wearing boxing trunks and cowboy boots.

Both fighters, however, were in stocking feet at the actual weigh-in.

Patterson, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., is favored at odds of 6-1 to hand Harris his first defeat in 23 fights. He weighed a pound and a half less than expected.

Nasser Press Says Norwegian Plan Is Doomed

CAIRO (AP)—The Nasser press today said the Norwegian plan for stabilizing the Middle East is doomed but that U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld will soon visit Cairo anyway.

The Norwegian resolution giving Hammarskjöld the job of easing Middle East tensions cannot obtain U. N. General Assembly approval because it does not demand immediate withdrawal of U. S. and British troops from the area, the Nasser controlled press said.

The newspaper Al Ahram, an unofficial mouthpiece for U. A. R. President Nasser, said Hammarskjöld already had made plans to fly to Cairo to discuss the situation with Nasser. There was no official confirmation of the report.

The Western-backed resolution was laid before the U. N. today.

Plans Being Rushed

guard test vehicle, Johnson replied. "I think the people know this time that we had long odds against us on the first try."

"We'll keep trying and the odds will get better as we go along."

This was the first of five lunar probe attempts ordered for this year, three by the Air Force and two by the Army. The rocket contained equipment to transmit pictures of the moon back to earth.

The relative positions of earth and moon are most favorable for moon rocket launching from any site only three or four consecutive days each month. Because of the 2½ days required to travel the 230,000 miles from earth to moon, the rocket must be aimed at a theoretical point far ahead of the moon.

The sun rising in a cloudless and moonless sky focused upon the tallest rocket ever fired in this country, a white-bodied, silver-tipped 88-footer.

At 7:18 a. m. the base of the rocket suddenly spouted yellow flame. Steam billowed out in a rolling cloud, and the 55-ton missile roared upward—straight and steady.

The plan called for the Thor Rocketdyne engine to produce its 150,000 pounds of thrust for a burning time of 157 seconds. Then the spent fuel would drop away and the Aerojet-General engine of the Vanguard second stage would take over.

The missile climbed to about 50,000 feet, angling over very slightly toward the northeast. Then there was a puff of smoke, a tongue of flame—and a long continued streak of a vapor trail northeastward.

Twenty minutes after the missile vanished, the Air Force announced that it had exploded after only 77 seconds of flight.

Neither of the upper stages of the rocket had time to achieve ignition. Nevertheless, the missile payload raced on and upward, sending back radio signals for more than 200 seconds after launching time.

In Washington, Lt. Gen. Roscoe Wilson, Air Force deputy chief of staff for research and development, predicted that another U.S. moon rocket attempt would be made Sept. 14.

SPECTACLE OF MUSIC

Carrying on in a manner that has been traditional with the Cornplanters Drum & Bugle Corps the third annual "Spectacle of Music" was presented Saturday at War Memorial Field, despite two last-minute cancellations by outstanding units that had been entered. Two substitutions that were made filled in a well-rounded and most enjoyable program that thrilled the huge audience throughout the evening.

Highlight of the event was the praise that the Cornplanters received from the group of experienced judges after they completed their drill following the appearance of Beverly Johnson and her Warren Twirling Corps. It was the first public performance of the Cornplanters in their "Class A" drill, which will be presented in competition on Labor Day.

All in all the third annual Spectacle of Music will long be remembered as one of the most colorful and entertaining evenings ever presented to a music lovers.

REDUCING RACKET

Recession or no, most Americans never ate better in their lives. But this gives a lot of them a weight problem, and a good many evidently are all too eager to respond to reducing appeals.

It's a case of conflicting goals: to eat well and look slim and trim.

Nothing therefore seems more inviting to many than a proposition which promises to resolve the conflict, to let 'em eat cake and look as if they hadn't.

In such a situation, the makers and advertisers of phony reducing remedies catch the gullible in droves. A U. S. House committee says Americans are pouring 100 million dollars a year foolishly down the drain, investing in a kind of pie in the sky that they hope won't show around their middle.

Stay off those third helpings, men, and keep yourself thin and your wallet fat.

GORY WEEKEND

According to Associated Press dispatches traffic accidents have caused the worst fatality toll in history for a non-holiday weekend in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Nine of the 26 persons perished Sunday, eight died Saturday and nine lost their lives Friday night. Three accidents in widely scattered areas brought death to 15 persons—five in each crash.

This paragraph should serve as a grim warning to persons planning auto trips over the Labor Day holiday beginning Friday, August 29th. Time to slow down and live!

Marlow Looks At TODAY'S NEWS

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington fortune-tellers usually wait for Congress to quit, when the dull days begin, before guessing who'll be running for president in 1960.

But why wait? There's no need to guess much about Vice President Nixon for the time being, since right now he seems to have the inside track for the Republican nomination. But it's a free-for-all among Democrats and will continue so.

A dozen Democrats—with the presidential conventions still two years away—already are being mentioned as maybe having a chance for their party's nomination. That's about par for the course. Right now the Democrats don't have one outstanding possibility.

Strangely, not much mention has been given recently to Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas as the Democratic candidate. Perhaps that's because this leader of the Senate Democrats has repeatedly said he has no presidential ambitions.

Maybe he hasn't. But he'd be extraordinary if he didn't. It's this writer's guess he's a man to watch. Saying right now he has no presidential ambitions—and yielding later to pressure, internal or external—are different things.

Pressure in 1960 would force him into a decision because his current Senate term ends that year.

Johnson couldn't run for both the Senate and the presidency. He looks like a cinch to be re-elected if he runs for the Senate again. But if he ran for the presidency and lost, he'd be out of the Senate.

promise candidate to pull the party together. For, while he's a Southerner, it was through his Senate leadership that Congress last year passed the first civil rights bill in this century.

It was a compromise bill, to be sure. It wasn't as much as the Northerners wanted. It was more than the Southerners wanted. Nevertheless, Johnson steered it through.

He's run up a remarkable record for getting things done in a Congress where the Democrats outnumber Republicans and run the show, although Republicans control the executive branch of the government.

How does he get things done? Through a combination of things: he's a compromiser, plays friendly, avoids personal attacks, keeps wadding to a minimum, and does favors for his fellow senators who thus become his debtors.

Johnson in the Senate could have done nothing, of course, unless the Democrats who control the House went along. And they do, under the leadership of Johnson's fellow Texan, Speaker Sam Rayburn.

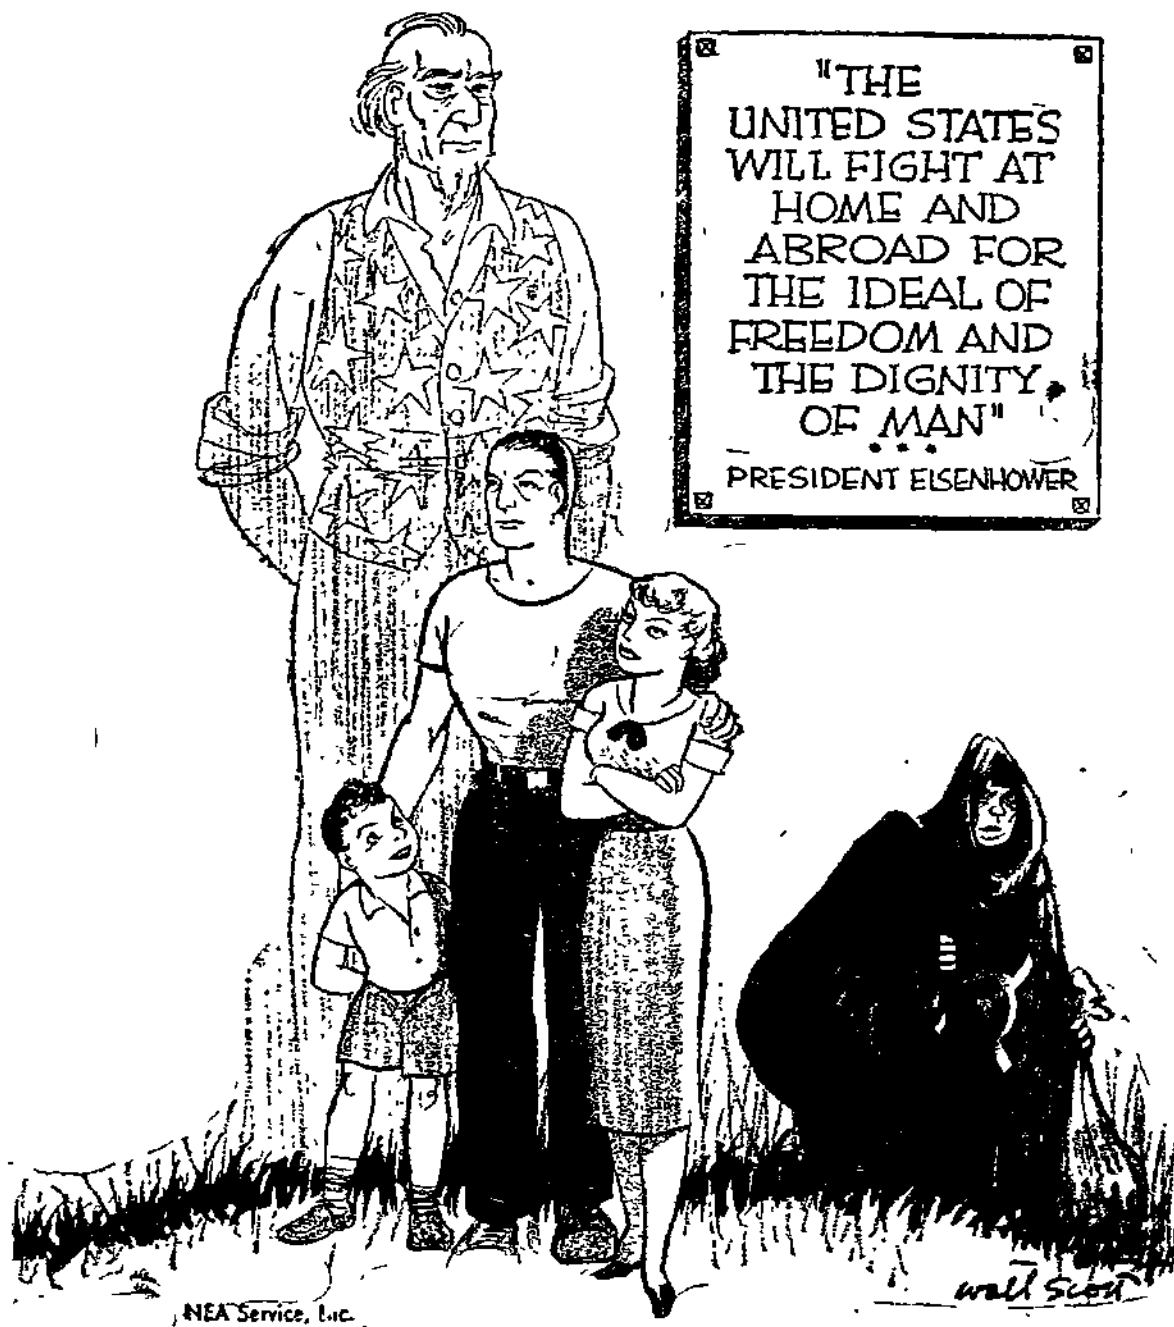

Rayburn is out of all possible consideration for the presidency. He's 76 now, will be 78 in 1960. Johnson, on the other hand, has youth on his side. He'll be 50 next week, only 52 in 1960.

At one time a bad heart attack might have hushed any politician's ambitions for the White House. Johnson had one in 1955. That seemed to spell the finish for him for any job beyond the Senate.

But a few weeks later President Eisenhower had a similar attack and then went on to win re-election in 1956. When Eisenhower slowed down after his attack, Johnson resumed his old pace.

And Johnson still has two more sessions of Congress—in 1959 and 1960—to build himself up for national consideration before the

The American Way of Life

Here and There

Acknowledgement of a note sent him last March after learning that he had left Pelham, N. Y., and was on his way to west coast to start a new life has just been received from our old friend and former Warren High school "great" Fritz Kennel. Folks who know him will realize that it was necessary to lay the communication aside for "weekend" reading. Having accomplished that project we are now ready to reveal some of its contents for the edification of his many friends among the readers of this column. Because it is written on a typewriter "double spaced" on both sides of the paper, quite contrary to usual newsprint practices, we were unable to cut it up and paste excerpts for convenience of the typesetters, hence it was necessary to retype what you will read here. In the third paragraph he says: "This place out here is really startling. The climate is beyond reproach; the seashore and the water are superb, the flowers and the shrubbery I have no adjectives to use that would properly describe them; the weather cannot be duplicated—all that remains is to find a few folks of our own age to become acquainted with and we'll be off to the races." Then he tells about a visit to the Del Mar Fair which made a big lump come up in his throat because, as he says, "it had all the thrills of the old Warren County Fair, plus a million more. Remember the old cattle barns and the poultry runways, and the houses, especially that big Percheron owned by the Bunker Hill farmer—can't think of the owner, but the horse's name was Treasure—well, this fair had all of that in addition to all the California people that make it such a big state. As for the food there were so many varieties that one wanted to be present all ten days and attempt to sample every kind in view. And the games of chance—or should we say skill, were numberless. Bles me, Ed, you could win anything from a deep freeze to a two-holer without leaving the premises, besides going in for a swim if you desired. It was truly spectacular—but for about two hours I lived among my memories of the old Warren County Fair by sticking close to the horses and cattle barns—Weller was the name of the farmer who owned Treasure, that giant of a horse—but enough of that. Then he tells about purchasing a house, "and decided we didn't like it, so we put it on the market for sale again immediately. S-h-e-l-p-me, I have never seen so many people wandering through a home as there have been since we gave the real estate boys the right to get rid of ours." About the soil, he says, "The soil out here is something to make you wonder. You just can't put a fork into it to turn it unless you drive the fork in with a sledge. But you can wet that same soil about two hours before you want to work it and it turns like sand. When you squeeze it in your hand it feels like a mixture of sand, clay and honey. It is sticky and fertile. You can grow anything in it. . . . When I first came out here, I dug up some soil in my daughter's backyard and planted tomato, pepper and eggplant sets. We have been eating off the things since March. It was shortly after March 27th that we had our last rainfall and we have not seen a drop since. The night temperature drops to around the low sixties and you need a blanket and in the daytime it is in the eighties and there is a constant breeze blowing after two in the afternoon. You can really get a sunburn out here in the early weeks of May, if you watch it you can gather a tan that would do justice to a whole summer's sunbathing in the east." (To be concluded on another day).

NEW YORK (AP)—Slowly but surely, President Eisenhower's Atoms for Peace plan is taking shape today.

The expense and international red tape have been a drag, but American corporations have set up nuclear reactors abroad, are building more and have contracted for still more. At least 20 can be tallied.

The President launched the plan nearly five years ago in his last previous appearance at the United Nations before he presented there last week the Middle East Development Plan. In this he hinted that nuclear power might help the Arabs solve one problem, that of making fresh water out of salt water.

Talk of atomic powered submarines to carry oil and other cargo under the North Pole also is stirring imaginations.

But some actual projects are in place on dry land. The progress will be checked next month in Geneva at the U.N.'s International Conference on Peaceful Use of Atomic Energy. An American built mobile radio-isotope laboratory is on the way there. Later it will tour Europe to give training courses to students.

American Machine & Foundry and its AMF Atomics division have stepped out fast. They report 16 nuclear research reactors either completed or underway in the United States, Canada and overseas.

Among them are reactors completed for the Ministry of Education in the Netherlands and for a laboratory at Munich, Germany. Other AMF reactors are under construction or in various drawing board stages for Canada, Austria, Greece, Portugal, Italy, Iran, Israel, Japan and Puerto Rico.

Westinghouse Electric International has licensed manufacturers in Belgium, Italy and West Germany to build and sell pressurized water reactors. A Belgian thermal reactor is expected to be operating by the end of 1959. Edisonvolta, S.P.A., large Italian utility, reports it will get one.

GE's atomic division reports one of its 3,000 thermal kilowatt reactors will be in operation next month near Madrid, Spain.

Under construction are GE reactor plants in Venezuela and Formosa. A West German utility announces it has contracted for a GE reactor to go into operation near Frankfurt by the end of 1960. GE's reactors are built by its Atomic Power Equipment Department at San Jose, Calif.

Peaceful atoms are being harnessed here and in England to produce commercial power, but much of the nuclear reactor work here and abroad so far has been for research and training. The U. S. has bilateral agreements with 24 nations to set up such programs and has appropriated five million dollars toward paying half of the reactors' costs.

AMF says its reactors will be used to activate materials for engineering tests, such as food processing and sterilization, biological reaction by radiation, and determination of wear in machinery.

Cash Transfusion Now On Way for Small Business

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—It will be some months before small business concerns will be able to get any of the new 20- to 30-year loans under the Small Business Investment Act just passed by Congress.

It will take at least 60 days for Small Business Loan Policy Board to issue necessary regulations. This board consists of Small Business Administrator Wendell B. Barnes, Secretary of Treasury Robert B. Anderson and Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks.

After that, the newly authorized "small business investment companies" must be set up under state charter. It is these local companies which will do the actual lending to small business.

The new law provides, however, that until June 30, 1961, the Small Business Administration itself may charter investment companies. They'll make direct loans in states which cannot go into this business under their existing banking laws.

The three-year period is intended to give states time to pass any necessary legislation. But no determination has yet been made on which states will have to take such action.

THE MAIN IDEA is to keep this new loan business in the states and out of Washington—except for the important little detail that the federal government will furnish about half the money under a new 250-million-dollar revolving fund authorized by Congress. And Small Business Administration approves all loans.

To set up one of these new investment companies, 10 or more people must form a corporation and apply for charter. They must have a minimum of $500,000 in paid-up capital and surplus. There is no top limit. If their charter is approved, SBA will then lend them up to one-half their capital.

In addition to helping the investment companies on half their capital subscriptions, Small Business Administration can also make 20-year working fund loans up to 50 per cent of their capital and surplus.

The Small Business Loan Policy Board will determine interest rates on these "wholesale" loans. Present SBA 10-year loans to small business are limited by law to not less than five and not more than 5½ per cent on the government's share of any loan.

THE ASSUMPTION is that SBA wholesale loan interest rates will have to be enough lower so that investment companies can reloan the money at retail to small business for five to six per cent interest, and still show a profit.

As many investment companies may be chartered in each state or city as are required to meet the capital needs of small business within that state. There will be no monopolies.

Once the chartered investment companies have their working capital, they can assist small business concerns of any kind, except perhaps liquor stores, race tracks and the like.

Investment companies may make loans to small businesses or may purchase their stock or debenture bonds convertible into common stock when the borrowers start making money. "This last provision enables investment companies to make windfall profits."

ALL LOANS TO SMALL BUSINESS firms must be backed by security to assure repayment. This security may be in liens on machinery or mortgages on buildings.

SBA is limited in the amount of loan it can make to an investment company by the total the company has borrowed from all other sources. This limit will not apply on loans secured by real estate. The amount of unsecured SBA loans will also be limited to half the company's borrowings from other sources.

This newly authorized source of credit is expected to fill a gap in small business capital financing that has been studied by Congress and Federal Reserve Bank for some years.

OUTWARD TO THE STARS (I)—Ancient Man

(1) To ancient man the stars must have seemed very close.

As agriculture was learned, the stars played an important part in his life. He recognized their regular movements with the seasons.

Later, man began to make gods of the stars. Then he transferred his earthly gods to the heavens. It was only natural.

(2) The Babylonians, from their temples, were first-rate observers. (The Tower of Babel was an observatory as well as a temple.) They saw that the planets seemed to move "through" the constelpseudo science of astrology. For centuries, the superstitious man believed heavenly bodies guided his destiny.

(3) The Greeks early realized that the earth must be a sphere (Anaximander, about 600 B.C.). Pythagoras developed the idea further. He conceived the universe to be made up of layers, like an onion. Pythagoras had discovered the mathematics of music. He thought that as the Moon sphere, Sun sphere, planet spheres, etc., revolved about the earth and each other they produced harmonies—the "music of the spheres."

(4) During the Dark Ages, the Arabs preserved and added to Ptolemy's science. Later they transmitted it to Europe. The Ptolemaic, earth-centered concept held sway over men's minds until the Renaissance. It then died a lingering death.

B.C.), noted the irregular movements of the planets. They questioned whether they did indeed revolve about the Earth.

It remained for the great Ptolemy of Egypt, by an extremely complicated system, to put Earth back at the center of the universe and restore the harmony of the earlier Greeks.

Protect Investment In Picnic Gear

BY KAY SHEERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

After a busy summer weekend, a survey of picnic equipment may prove an eye-opener for the homemaker.

The rate at which it has multiplied is reflected on our own sink drainboards with a lineup of vacuum bottles, coolers, portable grills, insulated bags and wicker baskets bulging with plastic or paper plates.

Add to these the many ingenious devices for keeping the traveler well fed and you may well count more than a shelfload of items.

You can also total a considerable investment.

YOU CAN'T BE CASUAL about their care if you want to protect your investment.

The wonderful king-size coolers, for example, which do such service keeping cold things icy as rugged, but when the outing is over they should be drained, sponged out with detergent or baking soda and wiped dry.

Vacuum bottles with extra-wide openings are favorites for beverages, soups and solid foods. Many now have plastic pressure seals instead of cork stoppers.

These must be washed, too, in hot suds and thoroughly rinsed to rid them of food particles and odors. The glasslined bottles are easier to clean with a heavily sudsed dish mop or bottle brush.

Rinse these thoroughly and let them air-dry completely before reassembling.

Narrow-mouthed vacuum bottles may be filled with suds and soaked clean.

IT'S USUALLY WISER to wash all vacuum bottles and jugs outside the dishpan rather than dumping them into water and risk breaking the lining or the seal.

Certain foods spoil quickly on a warm day and bacteria multiply rapidly, so that edibles packed in non-insulated containers or outside a cooler chest should not be too perishable.

Plastic boxes often used for such foods should be washed and dried carefully to rid them of any odors.

THE TRAVELER who packs an electric pot for heating water for coffee or tea or who boasts an ensemble complete with immersion heater often overlooks one essential.

Aluminum and glass travel cookers need dishwashing, too, and suitable detergents are not always easy to find on the road. The simplest solution I've found is to package granulated soap in a small plastic bag and tuck it into the corner of the carrying case.

Once home again, special care may be indicated, such as polishing the interior of an aluminum pot or treating glass bottles with vinegar or bleach to remove stains.

Make sure all utensils and equipment are absolutely dry before you tuck them away for the next trip.

Glade Fire Auxiliary Plans Summer Events

A fine tureen dinner was enjoyed at the summer home of Mrs. Emma Geary to precede the regular meeting of Glade Township Fire Auxiliary.

Mrs. Geary announced a combined Fire Department and Auxiliary picnic to be held September 7. The affair will be in the nature of a basket picnic and entertainment, with games planned by the committee. Auxiliary chairmen will be Mrs. Viola Seagist and Mrs. Beulah Knapp, who will announce location for the outing at a later date.

Other business considered included a "thank you" note from the Youth Ambassador, Robert Miley, expressing appreciation for the donation the Auxiliary made towards his trip.

Mrs. Thyra Nuhfer, chairman, announced plans progressing nicely for a bazaar in October. The president reported a book has been placed in the library in memory of Mrs. C. L. Gordon, a deceased member.

A nominating committee, consisting of Mrs. Doris Hansen, chairman, Mrs. Ella Hansen and Mrs. Niver, was chosen; all were reminded the September meeting will be held in the form of a picnic and corn roast at the Wigwam.

All residents in the township as well as Auxiliary members, are reminded the fire call number is 247.

Ruth Burgess, New York City, will be in Warren Tuesday and Wednesday to conduct a Workshop Survey on Piano Literature at Warren Conservatory of Music.

Mrs. Burgess, prominent teacher of piano in New York, has just returned from Boston Conservatory of Music, where she assisted teachers in a similar workshop.

The local workshop is for teachers only and will include instructors from Warren, Kane, St. Mary's, Troy and Jamestown. Piano literature from 12 different publishers will be on display for examination by those attending; Mrs. Burgess will conduct demonstrations, and hold informal discussion periods. There will be both morning and afternoon sessions in the two-day period.

Registration will be at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday and all teachers of piano are invited and urged to enroll.

Five Killed in Head-on Crash North of Butler

BUTLER (AP)—Five persons including four members of a single family were killed in a two-car collision Saturday on Route 8, four miles north of Butler.

State police identified four of the victims as Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Williams of Wilkinsburg, near Pittsburgh, and their two young sons. The driver of the other car, riding alone, also was killed. He was Ronald V. Small of Clarks Mills, R. D. 1.

Officers said the two cars hit head on about 6:50 a. m. Another Williams child, Donna, 12 was injured. She was reported in fair condition at Butler County Memorial hospital. She was the only survivor.

Officers said the Williams car was northbound, apparently on a vacation trip.

A. P. DEATH RECORD

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Virginia Hobart Tekkoku, 84, daughter of a California bonanza king and wife of Georgian Prince Zoubar, died Sunday. Prince Zoubar, 18 years her junior, and now a well-known New York and Paris artist, was her second husband. They were married in 1949 and separated five years ago. Her first husband was the late Charles A. Baldwin, a San Francisco millionaire.

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda reported Sunday that Yakob M. Lomakin, 53, last identified as counselor of the Soviet Embassy in Peiping, died Sunday after a long illness. It did not say where. He was former Soviet consul general in New York and San Francisco.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Fenton M. Man, 51, credited with capturing the first Germany spy in Normandy during World War II, died Sunday after a long illness. Since the end of the war he had been executive secretary of the William J. Kerby Foundation, which has as its objective the suppression of communism. He was born in Hartford, Conn.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Albert B. Holtz, 41, chief of the Philippine Division of the International Cooperation Administration, died Sunday of cancer. Holtz, who was an economist on Gen. Douglas MacArthur's staff in Japan from 1946 to 1951, was born in Bloomington, Ind.

BAYSHORE, N. Y. (AP)—Wolcott Gibbs, 56, long-time drama critic and writer for the New Yorker magazine, died Saturday. A former newspaper reporter, Gibbs joined the New Yorker in 1927 and had been drama critic since 1940. He was born in New York City.

Entries Pour in For the Jaycees Tennis Tourney

With Jaycees Junior Tennis Tournament week fast approaching, entries continue to pour into Don Norris, Jaycee chairman of the big event starting Monday, August 25 and running through to August 29. Chairman Norris reminds all tennis players that entries must be in his hands by Friday, August 22, so the committee may make selections for the draw.

Entry blanks are appearing in Times-Mirror throughout this week and they will also be posted at Beatty Tennis Courts this week.

Rules for entry are very simple: Each contestant must furnish a new can of balls, and he must enter his appropriate division determined by his age. Any boy or girl who has not reached his 18th birthday by September 1, 1958, is eligible for the Senior Division; any boy or girl who has not reached his 15th birthday by the same date is eligible for Junior Division.

As in past years, four first prizes will be awarded, one each to the boy and girl winner in each division. Chairman Norris has indicated that handsome trophies will be awarded as first prizes, and the possibility exists that second place medals will be awarded as well.

Serving on the committee with Chairman Norris are Elmer Mellander, Henry Powell, Harold Miller, Mark Bevevo, Bill Hesch and Bill Bevil.

Third Annual "Spectacle of Music" Greatly Enjoyed by Large, Enthusiastic Crowd

Third annual "Spectacle of Music" sponsored by American Legion Post 135 and Cornplanters Drum and Bugle Corps, left a lasting impression on the minds of the capacity audience that witnessed the colorful and entertaining event Saturday night. The Cornplanters gave a very impressive field drill that aroused many favorable and excited comments in the grandstands.

Due to existing conditions, the Appleknockers of Geneva, N. Y. and Cavaliers of Brockport-Batavia, N. Y., withdrew from competition Friday night and some hurried phone calls to the New York-Canadian Circuit were immediately placed.

Two fine corps, the Statesmen of Ridgecreek, N. Y., and the Grantham, Ontario Boys Trumpet Band were strongly recommended and were immediately contracted. Grantham encountered a fire, an accident, and construction work enroute and did not arrive in Warren until 7.45 p. m., but came onto a field and presented a colorful appearance in white Canadian-styled police hats and red and white uniforms.

They used as their theme an all-girl music background. Such popular songs as "Lady of Spain", "The Naughty Lady of Shady Lane", "Cindy" and many others set many people humming and whistling along with the ambassadors from Canada. Grantham placed fourth with a score of 72.63. The Statesmen, one of the two corps to use a girl color guard were outfitted in West Point styled jackets. It was unique to see a girl drum major with the Statesmen. They featured a "young" jazz drummer about five feet tall in their concert number whose arms were no bigger than his drum sticks, but showed he knew his

"Everyone passed and as you can see the club king was in back of my ace and the heart ace and queen in back of my king-ten. He wrapped up his contract."

"What's so bad about that?" I asked. "Five hearts makes also and counts more for them."

"So it does," he replied. "At all other tables South chose to open with some number of diamonds. Invariably, we got into the bidding and landed at four spades. This time no North or South player carried the ball any further. Some just let us play four spades undoubled for minus 100, some Norths doubled and made the score 300; but no one came near to this lucky so-and-so's score of six hundred for bidding and making five diamonds."

Jamestown, N. Y. Stores Damaged By $50,000 Fire

Jamestown, N. Y.—A general alarm fire, believed caused by the overheated boiler of a pressing machine in the Lundquist & Soderstrom clothing store at 38 North Main St., swept from the basement to the third floor late Sunday night, damaging the haberdashery and the Landy Fur Co. store at 36 North Main.

Unofficial estimates put damage at well over $50,000. Smoke and water damage was heavy in both the clothing store and the fur store. Most stock was badly damaged in both cases, including a number of valuable mink and sable coats, which were dragged, sopping, from Landy's by firemen and the store's owner, Fred V. Landy.

Landy himself, the city's Democratic Party chairman, donned a gas mask to rescue his business records. His wife also helped firemen and volunteers remove stock, which was piled on a coat rack in front of the building and guarded by police until the furs could be removed to Landy Cleaners at 211 Hopkins Ave.

Shortly after the fire chief's office in City Hall received the alarm from the fire box at First and Main Sts. at 10:22 p. m., all fire companies were sent to the scene and all off-shift firemen were called in.

Fire Chief Charles R. Dorman said fire originated in the basement boiler, then roared up the stairway to the third floor.

Fireman Donald Nohlquist, 27, of 34 Whitley Ave., was overcome by smoke and sent to Jamestown General Hospital. He was reported "fairly good."

Neither Rudolph Lundquist of the clothing store, nor Landy, ventured an estimate of damage but each said there was much smoke and water damage to clothing in their buildings.

Firemen, laying all available lines, brought the fire under control within a half hour after the alarm was turned in, then remained at the scene until well after midnight, completing mopping up operations and using smoke ejectors to clear the buildings.

Fur store employees were called to the scene to help with unloading operations, and Landy trucks lined up and took furs to the Hopkins Ave. address.

Fire fighting operations were directed by Chief Dorman, and Asst. Chiefs John F. Martyn and Virgil Eggleston. Almost every member of the fire department with the exception of those reported ill or out of town on vacation, responded to off-shift call.

According to assessment roll of the city for 1958, the building is owned by Fred V. and Sara C. Landy, and land and buildings are assessed at $27,975.

The blaze drew a crowd estimated at between 400 and 500 people.

Jersey Governor Backs Ike in His Chautauqua Talk

CHAUTAUQUA—Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey, in a major address at Chautauqua's Amphitheater Thursday night, backed the broad outline of President Eisenhower's Middle East "peace and prosperity" plan, but sharply criticized "the tactlessness and transparent selfishness" in administering the redevelopment funds.

Meyner, one of the likeliest pieces of political timber in the Democratic forest, turned to domestic politics in a press conference which preceded his Amphitheater talk. He repeated for reporters his earlier statement that "I am not now running" in the 1960 Presidential election. "Any future plans I have," he said, "will be determined by how well I handled my present job as governor."

Although fully appreciative of the "burdens and the handicaps" under which the Administration must operate, Meyner said that "there is an urgent need for training our personnel (of the economic aid missions) in habits of tact and diplomacy."

Meyner quoted John Lindberg, an expert in the field, as saying that the personnel of the aid missions have little conception of how to handle the natives whom they regard as an "inferior civilization."

Meyner agreed with the present Administrations' policy of aiding countries with different political philosophies than ours, on the basis that it is better to have them neutral and immune from Communist aggression, than to lose another country to the Communists. He cited our present aid to neutral India as an example.

Meyner also is in "full support" of the Administration's foreign aid program, and even favors restoration of the cuts made by Congress.

He is also in favor of the Administration's policy of segregating economic aid and technical assistance from military aid and agrees with the idea of channeling a maximum of aid funds into loan accounts rather than direct grants-in-aid.

"Certainly the great stakes involved are worth the comparatively small amount (1/4 of 1%) we spend to minimize the risks to our security, not to mention the satisfaction of advancing the welfare of millions of fellow human beings," he said.

In concluding Meyner said, "We must convince them that their ultimate goals and long range interests—freedom in a world at peace—are identical with ours."

Y.M.C.A. Planning Fall Conference At Birdsal Edey

The first fall annual retreat and fall planning conference of the Warren Young Men's Christian Association will be held at Camp Birdsal Edey (Girl Scout Camp) on Sunday September 7, 1958 from 3:00 to 8:00 p. m. according to a statement released over the weekend by John Mallory, Jr. chairman.

The theme of the conference will be "The Y.M.C.A. and the Community." The program will include periods of recreation and fellowship; a buffet dinner, discussion groups and an address by Everett M. Gilmore, Associate State Secretary of the State Y.M.C.A. of Pennsylvania.

Details of the program will be worked out later, except to say that it is rumored that Richard Betts, on behalf of the Youth Work Committee has challenged the Physical Education Committee, through its chairman, S. Knox Harber, to a volleyball game. At press time, it was understood, the Membership Committee chairman James W. Potter, was lining up his committee to serve as umpires.

Regardless of whether or not a challenge is made and whether it is accepted, there will be fun at the conference. Reservations will be necessary because of the Buffet dinner. They can be made with Mr. Mallory, Jr. or the Board office.

The conference is for adult members, friends of the Y, and their wives, husbands, parents and high school students. More details will be furnished later.

Hollywood News

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I want the world to know," said director Billy Wilder, "that Marilyn is not only on time, she is three hours early."

Fantastic, but true. It was late morning when Marilyn Monroe sashayed onto the set of "Some Like It Hot." It was her first day of shooting after a lengthy absence from Hollywood, and she wasn't due for work until the afternoon.

She was decked out with spit curls, cloche hat and fur-trimmed chemise, and only she could save the sack from its imminent death. She looked great.

After the niceties, Marilyn stopped to talk with an old friend. The scene was the train shed at MGM and it brought back memories.

"This is where I did 'Asphalt Jungle,'" she reflected. "So maybe it is lucky to be in the picture here, though I don't believe in luck."

What does she believe in? "A combination of circumstances," she explained. "Like how I got the role in 'Asphalt Jungle.' John Huston was considering another actress for the role, but a friend got me in to see him. It happened that I had met him briefly before, and he remembered it. After we had talked a while he gave me the role."

She played the sweetheart of gangland attorney Louis Calhern. She had only a brief scene in which she slithered over a couch, but it made a big impression. MGM let her escape and 20th Century-Fox hired her. History resulted.

I asked if she would now be working more regularly.

"I hope so," she said. "I could not for a while because I was tied up in legal difficulties. Now they are all cleared up."

What about "The Jean Harlow story?"

"I would want to be sure it was done right," she said. "It's a big responsibility to portray someone else's life; if someone did mine, I'd want to be sure it was handled in good taste."

"Jean Harlow had a really dramatic life," Marilyn said. "She had some pretty tough times and was around Hollywood for a long time before she was recognized."

I mentioned that it sounded like another blonde I knew.

"Could be," she smiled, and she sashayed off.

Patterson Heavily Favored To Retain His Title

Milwaukee Takes Road With An Eight-Game Bulge Today

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The talk around the National League these days is not whether the Milwaukee Braves can hold out.

Rather, it's how much they will win by.

There's no longer any lingering doubt that the Braves might fold.

They have an eight-game bulge today as they head on a road swing and there isn't a team in the league that appears capable of making it even close. They've won seven in a row, matching their previous season's high. The Braves won a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Phillies Sunday 5-1 and 4-1 behind Juan Pizarro and Lew Burdette.

Frank Torre hit the first grand slam home run of his career in the opener. Pizarro came within two outs of his first major league shutout only to have it spoiled by El Fouches's homer.

In the nightcap, Burdette out-pitched rookie Ray Sempronio to gain his 15th victory. Wes Covington helped with a home run.

The Cincinnati Redlegs climbed out of last place by licking the Pittsburgh Pirates twice, 4-3, and 7-5. The St. Louis Cardinals polished off the Chicago Cubs 8-6. Los Angeles and St. Louis split a doubleheader, the Cards winning the first 12-7 and the Dodgers the second, 9-8.

The Redlegs knocked the Pirates out of second place. It was their third victory in five games since Burdette took over as manager.

Tom Acker, primarily a relief pitcher, went all the way in the first game for the Redlegs. Joe Nuxhall won his 10th in the nightcap with the aid of Don Newcombe.

It wasn't until the ninth inning of the opener that the Redlegs iced the decision on Jerry Lynch's run-scoring single. Pinch hitter George Crowe drove in the deciding run in the nightcap in the eighth with the bases loaded.

San Francisco regained second place with its home run splattered triumph over Chicago. Leon Wagner, Daryl Spencer and Willie Mays each hit one for the Giants. Mays came with two on. Dale Long, Bobby Thompson and Ernie Banks all connected for the Cubs. Moe Drabowsky was the loser.

Redlegs Drop Pirates to 3rd In the Standings

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates are idle today before opening a six-game stand Tuesday against the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field.

Cincinnati defeated the Pirates twice Sunday, 4-3 and 7-5, to drop them into third place in the National League, one game behind San Francisco and nine games behind league-leading Milwaukee.

The victory gave the Redlegs the series, three games to one. George Crowe, both times in a pinchhitting role, touched off the winning rally in the first game with a single and with the bases loaded drove in the deciding nightcap run.

Jerry Lynch provided the spark for the Redlegs, getting five hits in eight times at bat for both games.

Bob Porterfield and Don Gross were charged with the defeats. Porterfield relieved starter George Witt in the first game. The Redlegs ended Witt's string of scoreless innings at 26-2-3 by getting two runs in the fourth inning, but he struck out 10 batters for the third time this year.

Dick Stuart belted two home runs in the second game for the Pirates.

White Sox Look Like They Intend To Make Race of It

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox look like they mean to make a race out of the American League pennant chase.

Whether they started their surge too late remains to be seen. Probably they did.

But they're only 11 1/2 games behind the league-leading New York Yankees today and all signs point strictly upward for them. They have won five in a row and 18 of their last 24.

The Yanks have lost eight of their last 11, and Manager Casey Stengel is so upset with the sudden turn of events that he called a morning practice today in Yankee Stadium. No team has been so close to the Yanks since July 20th.

Sunday, the Sox licked the Cleveland Indians 3-2 behind Billy Pierce, who now has run his record to 13-9. It was second-string catcher Earl Battey who contributed the winning blow, a home run with two out in the eighth inning.

Jim Mudcat Grant was on the mound for the Indians. His record against the Sox this season is now 0-6.

Elsewhere in the American League, the Boston Red Sox downed the slumping Yankees 6-5, the Kansas City A's whipped the Detroit Tigers 4-1, and the Baltimore Orioles edged the Washington Senators 2-1.

Ike Delock was the winning Red Sox pitcher.

Bob Grim was the author of Kansas City's decision over the Tigers. Grim was touched for only four hits and it marked the first time this season he has gone nine innings.

Baltimore jumped over Cleveland into fifth place in the league standings by whipping Washington. Connie Johnson not only did a good job on the mound, doing out only three hits, but he knocked in the winning run with a sacrifice fly in the fifth.

Wellsville Man Makes Sweep of Stateline Feature

Stateline's new-type Championship line-up found point leader Jim Patrick of Wellsville making a clean sweep of the Birch-Ruth Memorial Trophy 50-lap feature event, never headed during the entire 50 circuits, although steady pressure from Wellsville's Dean Layfield made Patrick win by no means an easy one Saturday night.

Stateline officials adopted the new line-up according to point standings, by a request from Independent Racing Association, following the mass 18-car pile up last week. Saturday's event found a few smaller mix-ups.

Emory Mahan secured fourth in first semi, and is now in 10th position in Top Ten standings with 606 points. Bud Gardner, Clarendon is holding eighth position in the standings with 650. Patrick leads with 818.

At Stearns of South Dayton, last week's feature crash victim, game his old rival, Dean Layfield, a close match again in the big one, but couldn't quite catch Dauntless Dean's borrowed car as the Wellsville ace showed his mastery of the unfamiliar mount. Stearns settled for third, but earlier wins in a heat and a semi assured him a fair share of the $2,000 purse.

Before the main program and during intermission, youngsters of Quater-Midget league got in their licks on the special infield oval. Bobbie Stull of Jamestown, a nine-year-old lad with a heavy foot and some driving ability rivaling older pilots, was easily the star performer of the 12 lads participating. Young Stull copped a heat, semi and the 20-lap feature. Other heats were taken by Steve Behe, 10, Jamestown; Bob Howe, 12, Conneaut, Ohio; Dick Thorps, 11, Jamestown; John Jameson, 8, Erie.

Tremendous acceptance of this program has prompted Stateline officials to set an even larger one for Labor Day weekend. A 100-lap Trophy Race for the season's Grand Championships will highlight the August 30 show, with a

Orioles Pitcher Knocks In the Winning Counter

BALTIMORE (AP)—Pitcher Connie Johnson of the Baltimore Orioles gave the Washington Senators only three hits, then knocked in the winning run Sunday and is he proud of it.

The winning blow that is "That old drive to right field did it," said the 35-year-old pitcher.

The drive went about 120 feet. Second baseman Herb Pless caught it in short right field with his back to the plate. By the time he turned around, and threw home, Brooks Robinson had scored from third in the sacrifice for a 2-1 victory.

Johnson wasn't overjoyed about his pitching.

GEDMAN HITS STONE WALL—Gene Gedman, Detroit Lions fullback, is stopped by two All-Star tacklers after a very short gain. Action occurred in first quarter of Lions-College All-Stars game in Chicago.

HIGH COST, LOW SUPPORT

Warren High Dragons tasted their worst financial year last season. Fan support of the games for the grid squad was considerably low.

To maintain top-squad performance and protect football players from injuries, good equipment must be purchased for the squads, both varsity and junior high.

High School Principal Joseph Passaro noted that no player is sent into action without first being properly equipped with the best safe-guarding equipment. To do this, a tremendous amount of money is spent each season.

Junior high and varsity players are outfitted with the same type of equipment, varsity costing slightly more than junior high gear.

Cost for varsity squad equipment—just one player is:

Helmet $21.95, shoulder pad $18.75, kidney pad $9.95, thigh guards $2.50, face bar $3.75, football shoes $15.95, game jerseys $12.85, game pants $18.95, sweat socks $1.65, incidentals, 85c. Every season, an average of 50 boys must be outfitted, each at the above prices.

For junior high equipment, one player:

Helmet $9.95, shoulder pad $5.95, practice pants $3.95, hip pad $5.25, thigh guards $2.50, football shoes $8.45, incidentals $1.50. Forty is the average number equipped with these prices.

Support of games this season, and every season, is important, both for the moral of the team, and financially supporting it. Without either, football teams will suffer a damaging wound. The game is the most expensive of all high school sports to maintain. Let's keep OUR Dragons on the field!

Ty Cobb Volunteers a Few Ideas About Modern Game

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Ty Cobb advocates greater use of the stolen base, thinks modern players don't show enough initiative and inventiveness, and blames the batters, not the pitchers for the recent beanball epidemic.

Otherwise the game of baseball is being played not much differently from his day—with due allowances made for the lively ball and he believes such stars as Mickey Mantle, Ted Williams, Stan Musial, Willie Mays, Whitey Ford, Alvin Dark, Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews would have been stars in the 1910's, '20's and '30's.

The 71-year-old Hall of Famer thinks the modern era of athletes breeds a pretty good crop but he adds that the old timers were more aggressive, and had more initiative will to win and devotion to their work.

"I realize we are in a different era today," the remarkably erect, alert and rugged-looking Georgia peach said in a recent visit to New York to attend an old timers' game at Yankee Stadium. "The home run now reigns supreme.

25-Year-Old Texas School Teacher Battles Champion In 15-Round Bout Tonight

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Underdog Roy Harris from the picturesque community of Cut and Shoot, Tex., tonight takes aim at the heavyweight boxing championship of the world against the heavily favored titlist Floyd Patterson.

The 25-year-old school teacher, who enjoys walking barefooted, battles the New Yorker over a route of 15 rounds or less in Wrigley Field starting at 8 p. m. (PDT).

Clear weather was forecast with theater television carrying the bout to 115 cities, with no home TV nor radio.

Odds favoring the champion for this third title defense were quoted at about 6-1 to win and 3-1 to score a knockout but little wagering action was evident. Still Patterson could find himself against his toughest foe to date, a rugged opponent with 22 straight victories.

Harris hails from the woody Big Thicket country 40 miles from Houston. He remains a mystery man to most since all his bouts have been in his home state and he's never appeared on national television.

The challenger was expected to weigh in today at 192 with the speedy champion at 188. On the financial side, Harris collects a $100,000 guarantee and Patterson might get twice as much on the basis of a guarantee and percentage.

Until the weigh-in at Hollywood Legion Stadium, both remained in seclusion at hotels and both voiced confidence.

"If I didn't think I could beat him, I wouldn't want to fight him," drawled Harris, a graduate of Sam Houston State Teachers College who considers returning to the books for a master's degree.

On the other hand, career boxer Patterson, who won the title by stopping Archie Moore in five rounds on Nov. 30, 1955, declares he wants to earn a reputation as "a great champion."

His only two defenses have been against the easily hit Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson and Pete Rademacher whose claim to fame was victory in the 1956 Olympics. Patterson stopped Jackson in 10 rounds on July 29 last year and blasted the clumsy Rademacher out in six.

Tonight the boxers wear 8-ounce gloves with scoring on the 10-point must system. The winner of each round gets 10 points and the loser 9 or less depending on his showing. The referee and two judges will render the verdict should the engagement go 15 rounds, a distance neither fighter has traveled.

It was nearly a year ago, on Aug. 22, that Patterson whipped Rademacher who made his professional debut in the title bout at Seattle. Some observers believe the 361-day layoff hurt the champ's timing. Since turning professional after winning the 1952 Olympic middleweight championship, Patterson has won 33 times and lost once.

The financial arrangements guarantee Harris $100,000 for his night's work. Patterson receives a guarantee of $210,000 from Teleprompter, the firm handling the theater television, plus 50 per cent of the net gate. But Harris' $100,000 comes out of Floyd's take in the novel financial arrangement.

Kinzua Advances to Playoffs; Busti Wins

In two Chautauque County Baseball Association games Sunday, Kinzua advanced into the finals of League playoffs after they defeated Harmony 7-5 and Busti ran over Onoville 6-3.

Al Barber smashed a grand slam homer for Harmony at Kinzua.

In Municipal Stadium, Onoville scored 10 hits, including a triple and two doubles. Top of the sixth, Onoville was leading 3-0.

But Busti erased all suspense with a four-hit six-run rally bottom of sixth.

Kahkwa Club in Erie defeated Lake Shore 156-125 Friday in first annual swimming meet involving boys and girls 15 years and under from the two country clubs. Meet was staged at Lake Shore pool, where first annual Erie Times-Lake Shore swimming meet is slated Wednesday. Many Warren aquatic stars have registered for the event, including Lane Donovan, J. Weber, M. Ritchie, Sue Werner, Linda Werner, for the Erie division; Jack Branch, Ed Branch, Jerry Lauffenberger, Lou Carter and Dave Beatty for boys bracket; Pat Madden and Clyde Baker for men's competition. Bobby Burke has signed, also.

Ninth annual K-C golf tournament is scheduled for September 28 at Oakland Beach 18-hole golf course at Conneaut Lake Park. The tournament scored on Callaway system will be starting tee times at 8 a. m. and deadlines at 11 a. m. Entry fee is $6 per individual.

Pennsylvania's top amateur golfers will be in Erie this coming weekend. Jack Mahaffey, a zero handicap golfer will play in Kahkwa Club's Member-Guest Tournament Saturday. Last Wednesday Mahaffey won West Penn amateur championship at Fox Chapel. He now is competing for Simon-Pure crown.

Tomorrow night at Soldiers and Sailors home in Erie, another fine amateur boxing card will be presented. PALS and Martin Recreation center pugilist will star in the event. Jim Berdis, Alvin Connors, Lou Mazzuca, Vinnie, DiNicola, Johnny Buzzaro, Frank Myers and Herb Dillon are slated to participate.

Lake Shore is getting ready for its annual penance, according to Erie Times-News. Deadly day is Thursday, Sept. 11, when Irish Vogt and company play a host to earnest golf extravaganza of the year, fourth annual Newspapermen's golf tournament. Even the name is mixed-up. The tournament isn't exclusively for newsmen. Allied craftsmen in the printing trades are eligible. So are radio and television personnel, assorted public relations executives from industry and even Madison Avenue boys of advertising agencies. Bad as the golf scores are, there is nothing wrong with the scorekeeping. Reporters have a strict warning against any literary license in recording their efforts; and an eagle eye is kept on printers who might accidentally suffer a typographical error by jotting a 6 after using 16 strokes. Eligible personnel may make reservations for golf or dinner or both by calling Times Society Editor Pat English or Sunday Editor Bob Sutherland in Erie.

Jamestown Jaycees' Midget Football League, with nearly a third increase in playing personnel and a double in schedule, will open its season in Municipal stadium Sept. 12 with a double-header. Double-header programs will be a regular feature on Friday nights through Oct. 31. A fund-raising drive in now being conducted. Estimated cost for outfitting one player is $25. Age brackets for playing is 10 to 13. Backs and ends must be in the 60-110 pound weight group—linemen may be ten pounds heavier.

A National Television Public Service Committee, comprised of leaders in the entertainment and information fields, has been formed to oversee television programming for 1960 Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley, California. The committee will assist in providing entertainment for Olympic competitors, spectators and television viewers, along with serving in an advisory capacity during television negotiations.

Annual Prize Day of Pittsburgh Pirates will be Sunday, Sept. 28 this year, when the Bucs close out their exciting '58 National League season against Philadelphia Phillies.

In the 49-year history of Forbes Field, no pitcher—Pirate or foe—has ever pitched a no-hitter there. Rookie George Witt of the Pirates came close on Aug. 12, when he two-hit the world champion Milwaukee Braves, 10-0. Only two Pirate pitchers since turn of the century have hurled no-hitters—Nicholas Maddox against then-Brooklyn, Sept. 20, 1907, and southpaw Cliff Chambers against then-Boston on May 6.

Pirates finished off a tremendous home stand last Tuesday with a two-game sweep over the Braves. Bucs topped off their 16-wins-in-18-home games with their biggest inning of the year—an eight-run, eighth-inning against the Braves to beat them 10-0.

Few Members of Plans Unfold for Braves Team Are Talking Pennant

By CHUCK CATALDO
Associated Press Sports Writer

MILWAUKEE (U)—The only thing the Milwaukee Braves have to fear today, as they head West eight games ahead with 37 to play, is themselves.

At least that's the way catcher Del Crandall feels about the fast fading National League campaign.

"We'll be all right unless we fall into one of our oldtraps," he said. "I don't mean overconfidence. I mean lethargy."

"We've had 'em before and no one knows why," he continued. "We go along for a few games and no one hits. We just stumble along until we snap out of it. That's what we have to guard against."

Few of the Braves made any outright pennant predictions Sunday following their 5-1, 4-1 sweep of a doubleheader from the Phillies. With seven victories in a row, they now have equalled their longest previous winning streak of the season. San Francisco again is in second place.

The closest anyone came to actually talking about a second consecutive flag was Hank Aaron, who said, "If we can win seven of 10 on this Western trip, we should have it clinched."

Actually, it will take more than that. Right now the so-called magic number is 31—a combination of 31 Braves' victories and Giants defeats would give Milwaukee the championship.

Shortstop Johnny Logan, reminded that he had predicted at All-Star time the Braves would win by 10, said his prediction looked better than ever.

"The way we're going," he said, "we should hit 10 by September. I'd be satisfied if we were ahead by 10 Sept. 15."

Deer Accidentally Killed
The Game Commission has record of 3,280 deer killed by vehicles on Pennsylvania highways within the first six months of 1958. This is a much higher figure than usual for that half of the year. During March, April, May and June the average monthly loss of the white-tails through such collisions was 634. The number of deer fatally struck by vehicles on the roads of the Commonwealth always rises in the late summer and fall months. During all of 1957 the number of deer so destroyed totaled 9,262.

Off Color Wildlife
This spring a man living near Dalton, Lackawanna County, used his scope-equipped .222 rifle to bring down a "white" crow his daughter sighted feeding with normal-colored crows in a field near the house. Says Game Protector Stephen Kish, "It turned out the crow was not an albino as first thought. Its plumage was a mottled brown and white, and its beak and legs were brown. Naturally, the farmer is having it mounted." More recently Game Protector Albert Kriefski reported, "My wife, son and I were privileged to see a rabbit with a coat of unusual color feeding at the edge of our lawn in Blooming Grove, Pike County. The cottontail was a light gray that came close to being a dirty white."

Pheasant Creates Rumpus
Several Kingston residents were startled, recently, by the crash of window glass in a neighborhood garage, says Game Protector Edward Gotsky, Luzerne County. "A ring-neck pheasant was found, unconscious, in the garage. The bird was placed in a basket in another garage and I was notified. Before my arrival on the scene there were two more crashes. Evidently the pheasant regained its senses and, in attempting to escape, shattered two more window panes. When last seen the ringneck was winging its way toward natural cover, seemingly unharmed."

Information On Outdoors
The Pennsylvania seasons and bag limits for the next hunting license year have been announced by the Game Commission, the federal regulations on migratory birds are being received and the dog training season has begun. Annually, about this time, outdoors-minded people begin to anticipate enjoyments afield this fall and winter with gun, bow or trap. Following anticipation comes planning, and this gives rise to questions about game and fur conditions and prospects. The answers to many questions are found in Game News, official publication of the Game Commission. The August issue of the magazine is a fair example. Following the editorial on the value of wildlife research the contents include: the official 1958 open seasons and bag limits; the story of the Commission's new system of land management for wildlife; training Game Protectors to instruct teachers in the National Rifle Association hunter safety and rifle marksmanship courses; a bird dog training article, and one on hounds and their value; one of series of articles interpreting the Game Laws; hunting safety pointers for archers; enrollment of the Ninth Student Officer Class at the Commission school, outdoor fun with a camera, also the how-to of wildlife photography; an illustrated article on herons, the relationship of snakes to game populations; the always popular items from Game Protectors; a story about conservation in action; and many informative articles interestingly told, along with the best of art and photography on the cover and within the magazine. Game News is devoted exclusively to the "where, when, why and how" of Pennsylvania hunting, trapping and wildlife management. Where else can persons interested in the outdoors buy so much for so little?—$1 for 12 issues, $25 for a three-year subscription. The magazine is tailored to the needs of the Commonwealth's outdoorsmen, and it provides enjoyable between-season reading as well.

Cost of Duck Stamp Rises
President Eisenhower has approved a bill increasing the price of a duck hunting stamp from $2 to $3. The change will become effective July 1, 1959. All net proceeds from the duck stamps sold in future will be used for the acquisition of federal refuge lands. The total refuge area at present is about 3½ million acres. It is anticipated that the Secretary of the Interior will purchase about 4 million acres from returns from the $3 stamp fund. It states add 5 million acres in refuges the 12,500,000-acre goal of the Department of the Interior will be reached. The new law also gives the Secretary of the Interior discretionary authority to open a maximum of 40 per cent of any refuge to the hunting of migratory waterfowl. The Secretary is now limited to 25 per cent of such lands acquired with duck stamp funds.

ON KLM LINER—Miss Phyllis McCalmont, a b o v e, of Pittsburgh, a social worker, was among the 49 Americans on the KLM Super Constellation that crashed into the Atlantic 130 miles west of Ireland. The plane carried 89 persons.

Marine Recruiter Schedules Visit Here August 21

ERIE—TSgt. Andy Nogacek, Non-Commissioned officer in charge of the Marine Recruiting office in Erie, announced that there will be a Marine Recruiter in Warren, at the Exchange Hotel on Thursday, August 21, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. to select young men and women for enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps.

Sgt. Nogacek also stated that men who enlist now will have the opportunity to spend their 15 day boot leave at home during the Christmas and New Year holidays.

The Marine Corps also has in effect a "Buddy System", that makes it possible for groups of two to five or more men to enlist together and be guaranteed that they will remain together at Parris Island during their boot training.

The Marine Corps has 140 different specialist schools, which train Marines for 470 specialist jobs. At the present time, there is an unlimited number of openings for enlistment in the Marine Corps. For more information about the Marine Corps, drop in and talk to the Marine Recruiter next Thursday at the Exchange Hotel or you can contact their main office in Room 127 of the Federal Building in Erie, Pa. any day of the week except Sunday or you can call Erie 2-3496.

Another Child Is Struck By An Auto

A young miss was struck by a car on Friday afternoon as she ran across Fourth avenue with her vision blocked by an umbrella.

Police said Antonette Cerando, 13, of 707 Conewango avenue, was hurrying to church shortly after 5 p. m. when she darted from the north curb of Fourth avenue near Union street.

John S. Champion, 49, of 17 Bauer street, told police he could not avoid the girl as she scampered into the path of his automobile. Witnesses said they believed the girl's vision was blocked by her umbrella.

She was taken to Warren General Hospital where her condition was reported "good" after treatment for deep gashes on her right forearm.

Elsewhere in the weekend traffic accident picture, two cautious motorists scraped opposite sides of a narrow bridge near Hemlock rather than scrape each other.

Troopers said Kelly McCool, 17, of 9 Parker street, and Eleanor Huren, 34, of RD 1, Warren, approached each other on Hemlock Street Extension with a narrow bridge between them.

Each hugged the rail and both scraped right along it, but did not touch each other's vehicle. Damages were not estimated by troopers.

Mishap occurred about 5:18 p. m. Friday.

At 5:30 p. m. Friday on Route 59 one-eighth of a mile south of Kinzua, E. C. Carlin, 36, of Phillipsburg, N. J., was heading north on Route 59 when he failed to spot in time a highway department truck pulling a Mead trailer in the road in front of him.

The collision put a $1,000 crease across the front of Carlin's vehicle. Damage to the trailer was estimated at 30 cents for a new tail light lens. Driver of the highway truck on the rainy afternoon was Arthur Matthew Alexander, 40, of Columbus.

At 8:10 a. m. Sunday a 2½-ton truck from a Marine Convoy went through guard rails as it headed down Route 68 one-eighth of a mile from Kinzua.

Driver was Thomas John Costa, 18, of Erie. He failed to negotiate the curve. A passenger, Gary Stancliffe of Erie, sustained a bruised shoulder and shock but was taken on by the convoy for treatment at an Army hospital.

At 1:43 p. m. Sunday, Robert

L. Hansen, 36, of Conewango avenue extension, braked his car when a child ran in front of it on Pennsylvania avenue west. Unable to stop in time behind was Frank J. Zingone, 31, of 17 Wetmore street.

Damages were estimated by police at $200 to the Zingone machine, $50 to Hansen's.

JAMESTOWN PAYROLLS

Post-Journal: The Jamestown Area Chamber of Commerce has reported that industrial payrolls in Jamestown for July, 1958, were higher than those for a comparable period a year ago. In July, 1957, payrolls in the city amounted to $2,968,611.

For July of this year they climbed to $3,172,829. Meanwhile, the Chamber said that payrolls in Falconer for this year continued to run behind those of a year ago. They came to $218,999 in Falconer in July, 1957, and dropped to $126,480 for July, 1958. In other categories, the report showed that bank clearings for the month just past were $14,375,330, compared to $15,208,979 for July a year ago. Bank debits dropped from $51,000,086 last July to $45,014,513 for this July. Building permits showed an increase in July of this year. They were $171,211 in July, 1957, and totaled $276,715 in the month just past. Post office receipts remained about the same as last year. They came to $50,631 in July last year and $50,229 in July this year. Parking meter receipts climbed to $7,077 for July, 1958, from a total of $6,869 for July, 1957.

Ambulance Service Is Assured for Meadville

MEADVILLE — Ambulance service was assured for the city of Meadville at a special meeting of Council at 4:30 p. m. Friday. For a time it was feared the city would be without the protection beginning Saturday, when city funeral directors abandoned the service.

Jerry Esposito, operator of the proposed Meadville Ambulance Service, told Council he was ready to go ahead with the service although he has secured only a little more than 2,500 memberships. He had been aiming for a minimum of 4,000.

The ambulance service operator said he hoped the good faith of the community would pull him out of his financial hole. The drive for more members in the ambulance plan will continue.

Mr. Esposito noted that the current issue of a morticians' magazine carries an article about ambulance operation and its trend in recent years.

The article points out that a few years ago 60 per cent of all ambulances were operated by funeral directors. Now the same 60 per cent applies to services operated by other operators, including ambulance companies.

In cities in the 20,000-population class only 36 per cent of the cities have service provided by funeral directors. The remaining 64 per cent have service provided by other operators.

The ambulance company was the dominant factor in providing this service, the article pointed out.

It's for YOU

OUR NEW PROTECTED PAYMENT PLAN

Q. How many times may I receive benefits?

A. Any number, if a doctor certifies you're totally disabled.

Q. Must I be sick in bed, or confined to my home?

A. NO. But you must be unable to work.

Q. Can anyone get this?

A. Anyone, regardless of the hazards of his occupation can secure this protection, at no increase in rate.

Q. May I add this protection to my present installment loan?

A. Yes, you can. We will be glad to discuss with you how to do it.

Now for the first time, you are able to add an additional safe-guard to your installment loan, with our new service, the Protected Payment Plan.

When you make a loan for new appliances, a car, or any type installment loan it's your future earning power which made your loan possible. Serious accident or sickness could keep you off the job, robbing you of your income, and your ability to make your payments.

Our Protected Payment Plan will make your payments for you, if you're totally disabled. Once at work, you have NO back payments to meet. Your investment is guaranteed! You can have this protection on your present loan. Ask us about it.
